

PROGRESS NOTES

October 22, 1998. Added Nursing Note @ 0400 hr

Received pt. from ER @ 0445 hr. PIV in situ and infus well @ 20cc/hr. PCA had been started in ER. Vital signs stable, afebrile on arrival to unit @ 36.72-16 - PR 90/60. Child moved from ER stretcher to bed with assistance, no complaint of pain when moving. Perometric monitor applied since arrival to unit and in situ throughout the night. Child settled to sleep and was asleep all night except when woken by nurse for vital signs. Mom @ bedside, settled to sleep. Nurse covering for writer @ break, called Pain Service @ 0405 as respirations ↓ to 8-10 min. Pain Service advised to take PCA button away, which was done. Child had not used PCA since arrival to unit @ 0445. At 0600 Respirations 14, HR 126. Entered room @ 0715 with physicians (orthopedic service) child not breathing, code 25 called, CPR initiated by orthopedic resident (Dr. Yee). Oxygen applied by RN while writer ran for Narcan in medroom when checked pt. @ 0600, monitor <sup>error</sup> in situ, an and functioning, pt. sleeping, mom asleep in room.
R.D. RN